The VAC International Festival
Saturday, June 20th & Sunday, June 21st, 2009
Pearl Street Mall in front of the Courthouse

History of the VAC International Festival - The Village Arts Coalition operated the “The Folk Life Fair” as a part of the Creek Festival from 1989 to 1997. It was held in front of the public library. A portable wood floor was assembled and folk dances, from countries around the world, were performed in colorful national costumes. Vendors of imported merchandise circled the dance floor. It was an open-air event that had to be called occasionally because of rain. Eager dancers sometimes resorted to dancing under an umbrella. In 1998 VAC started the “Boulder International Festival” in the same location but, without the Creek Festival, it was isolated and was not successful.

The Boulder Creek Events organization assumed management and expansion of the Creek Festival in 1999, and the Boulder International Festival, was moved to the Pearl Street Mall. It was expanded into a large tent with a new portable wood floor designed and built by volunteers. The new venue, including live as well as recorded music to accompany performances, an increase in the variety of performances and vocal music, is a welcome addition to the entertainment. An international market with vendors selling imported merchandise and food booths still surround the tent. Offering of open dancing with a Balkan Band has been added at the end of Saturday performances. In 2006, “Boulder” was dropped and the name “Village Arts Coalition” or “VAC” International Festival” was adopted. A display of flags from around the world and bulletin boards showing photographs of international dance events adds to the exciting and colorful atmosphere of a summer afternoon in Boulder. The VAC International Festival has become an important annual event on the downtown mall and is enjoyed by thousands of people every year.

These are some of the groups that will be entertaining us at the VAC International Festival:

Tango Colorado, Sahara Silk Road Belly Dancers, Boulder Spelemannslag, Hāau Hula O NāMauna Komohana, Raf'ah & Bellydance Artists, Boulder Swing Dance, John Chu- Participatory International Folk Dance teaching, Boulder Bateria (Brazilian percussion), Colorado Morris, Hamsa Arts – Boulder Belly Dance, Storm Mountain Folk Dancers, Scottish Country Dancers of Colorado, Rocky Mountain Polynesians, Shivanjali, Academy for Indian Classical Dance, Streetside (hip hop), Belredi Dance Caravan (Middle Eastern), Hora Romaneasca (Romanian dance) Grupo Folclorico Nueva Alianza (Mexican folk dance), Shireen and Friends – Bellydance and Flamenco, Kutandara Youth Performance Ensembles...AND MORE!

For a complete list and schedule please visit our web site at www.villageartscoalition.org

Submitted by Hermine Higgins

The VAC International Festival is a two day event featuring a vast array of dance and music performances from around the world, such as belly dancing, Mexican folk dancing, and salsas as well as International and American folk dance. In addition to watching the performances, the public is also invited to learn a few steps and participate in some of the dances. The event is surrounded by vendors selling international wares, such as art, hand made crafts and food.

On Saturday evening the BARBELLFISH, a Balkan band will play for the public and there will be open dancing from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. This event is ideal for families and people of all ages. It is free and open to the public.

If you would like to volunteer or require more information please contact Hermine Higgins, Event Coordinator at avalon@villageartscoalition.org
