Join us for the 2012 Annual Immigrant Heritage Week in Music and Dance, October 1-6, 2012. This week full of events honors the experience and contributions of the many immigrants who have shaped the city over many generations and/or that facilitate the successful integration of immigrants into the civic, economic and cultural life of the Boulder community. All events are free and open to the public. We especially hope that children can join us to experience a sense of worldwide cultural differences through music, dance and food.

Each evening will focus on a different culture with dance and music instruction/demonstrations as well as ethnic foods. Saturday afternoon will feature teaching children a variety of international dances by a professional instructor.

Celtic & English

Ay en includes three teams, all of which practice after performance season — that means beginners are encouraged. All three teams have danced at the International Festival. Practice details are:

- Maroon Bells has been performing Cotswold and occasional longsword dances in many venues since 1982. You’ve probably seen them in whites and ribbons somewhere in the state. Practice is on Wednesdays 7:30-9:30 p.m., mostly in Northglenn. Beginners classes start each fall. Info: www.maroonbellsmorris.org or call Squire Robin Smith, 303.651.0909.

- Breathless in Berthoud is a Border Morris team — ‘border’ referring to the one between England and Wales — that began in 2003. If you’ve seen dancers in colorful taffy coats and hats, you’ve watched Border. Practice: Thursdays 7:30-9 pm; Berthoud. Info: www.breathlessbordermorris.org.

- The Tommyknockers were started in 2002 for and by children of adults on Maroon Bells and have expanded to included any interested kids. No description of the kit is needed — you recognize them by their youthful energy. Practice is most often first Saturdays of the month 9:30-11:30 am in Berthoud. Call Sallie at 970.472.0863 for details. The Tommyknocker’s Morris currently range in age from 6-14. Beginners welcome any time! Building confidence, social, and team skills, students learn to dance in teams of two, three, four, six, & eight. Students learn to dance in unison, developing spatial awareness as they dance the patterns of traditional ceilidh dances. Classes are held at the Knights of Columbus Hall: 1741 Walnut in Boulder.
