A message to our community

The VAC may change its name!

This message is notice of – and a request for input on – an important matter concerning our VAC community.

Since its founding in 1989, the Village Arts Coalition (VAC) has operated to support and strengthen the “Folk Arts” community in the region around Boulder, Colorado. You know our routine activities: the bi-monthly “STOMP!” newsletter, our web-based event calendar, the annual International Festival on the Pearl Street Mall, the many hundreds of participatory activities of our 42 Member Groups, and especially the creation of the Pearl Street Studio, and now the ballroom at the Avalon.

However, when we speak our name, the response is too often mystification. “What are village arts?” “I thought you were a bunch of dance groups!” “What do you do?” “Aren’t you the Avalon?”

Without changing our mission or goals, we want to rectify our name. We want to have a name that is succinct, snappy, and that reflects our true purpose.

A committee of the Board of Directors of the VAC has brainstormed a broad range of conceivable words for a potential new name. Now we want to make sure we are choosing a course that is acceptable to our membership (and hopefully wildly popular!) by opening the discussion to a pool of creative minds to help us identify a great new name.

Please consider our current name. Consider the names of groups, organizations, clubs and societies with which you are familiar. Think about “village arts coalition”. Think about one of our mottos: “A Union of Groups creating Space for Dance in the Front Range”. Consider one of our slogans: “Get Fit – Meet People – Have Fun — Dance at the Avalon!”

So far we have centered on only one potential part of a name. We have agreed that the second half of a two-part name could be: <name>: Social Dance and Folk Culture. By this we mean something like “Blah-Dee-Blah: Social Dance and Folk Culture”, and thus we would colloquially call ourselves “Blah-Dee-Blah”.

We are looking for really good words to put into place for “Blah-Dee-Blah”. Or any other suggestions for a new name for our coalition of groups that foster folk culture in our area. We welcome your suggestions, of any kind. Please send an email to our President, Larry Utter, at president@villageartscoalition.org. You can also talk to any of the Board members.

Please send your comments for consideration by March 15, 2013.

Incidentally, by Folk Arts, we mean: “Activities that bring people together for dancing, music, singing, storytelling, conversations and other participatory performance arts, and that have some aspect of traditional, popular, social, regional, ethnic or other commonly shared cultural experience, usually not associated with schools or formal training.”

Your input is most sincerely requested. Thank you.

STOMPi is published six times a year by the Village Arts Coalition, a non-profit organization dedicated to the enhancement of the folk arts.

VILLAGE ARTS BOARD:

BOARD NEWS – JAN./FEB. 2013
The VAC received a generous donation from Chuck Palmer, enabling us to purchase further shares of Boulder Dance toward the Avalon. We are considering ways to promote the VAC and the Avalon. The VAC has hired Jim Schwartzkopf to run this year’s International Festival in June. We are discussing a name change for VAC.

VAC BOARD MEMBERS:
Larry Utter (P), Willard Crary (VP), Susan Reisser (S), Deborah Howard (T), Jim Borzym, Steward Hartman, Chuck Palmer, Melba Shepard, Susan Smith, Caroline Holmes Stepanek, and Rick Thompson.
DATE: 20 January 2013

TO: Members, VAC Member Groups, volunteers, donors, supporters, dancers, and friends of the Village Arts Coalition (VAC).

Thank you for your participation in our community again this year. At the beginning of this new year, here’s a glimpse of the Coalition and news of our activities.

The VAC was founded in Boulder in 1989 and currently consists of 44 member groups, and 143 individual members. We are governed by our articles of incorporation and by-laws, under the stewardship of 11 members on the board of directors, who serve staggered three-year terms. The VAC is one of two partners in the Avalon property, which is called Boulder Dance LLC. The VAC is a 501(c)3 tax-exempt non-profit Colorado corporation. Donations to the VAC are tax deductible as allowed by law.

2012 ACCOMPLISHMENTS
In 2012 the Village Arts Coalition has made important strides in fulfilling our mission to promote dance, music & other folk arts.

VAC hosted another successful International Festival on the Pearl Street Mall. This series of annual festivals began in 1982. Jim Schwartzkopff has joined us as the new festival manager. The festival will be held on June 28 – 30, 2013. We welcome your participation and help in presenting this festival.

The STOMP! continues to be published bi-monthly with articles about important aspects of our community. In November we hosted a 7th Anniversary Celebration party at the Avalon which brought diverse members of our community together for a full day of dance and celebration, plus the holiday decoration of the ballroom! Many thanks to Teri Rasmussen and Joseph Snowhawk for organizing this extravaganza, and Halina Palmer for another fantastic food experience.

At the Avalon, we host roughly 250 participatory dance events a year in the ballroom, plus other kinds of community events, and dance activities in the north lobby. Our operations are profitable. We have welcomed Rick Thompson as the new Manager of Operations at the Avalon. Illustrating the interest in the Ballroom, there are only 10 Saturdays in all of 2013 that are still available for rent. One aspect of our dedication to the local community is that it is our policy that community events are seldom bumped in favor of commercial rentals. Also, the fourth weekend of each typical month is purposely left unreserved for routine events so that special weekend-long events can be scheduled. If you have such aspirations, we have made provision for you.

The second large studio – Sodal Hall – is now under construction and well underway. We anticipate its inauguration sometime in 2013. You can look forward to announcements soon about work parties, including work to install the second cushioned oak dance floor. We heartily thank several people who have contributed many, many hours already in the work to build stud walls, install wiring, and move materials that have sped this work along. In particular: Scott Gregoire, Dave Sander, Ken Kelley, Peter Ridgeway, John Fleming, Ingvar Sodal, Steward Hartman, Shirah Hopson, Craig Kontny, Brian Lehmann, Loraine Burger, Maggie Butler, Yeager Bush, and Al Sadler.

Mention of Sodal Hall of course brings to mind the enormous contribution being made by Chuck Palmer in bringing the Avalon Building to fruition. He is the brain behind the project, much of the brawn, and the core of the drive to build Sodal Hall, finish the Ballroom, create the associated tango studio, manage the church tenant, deal with bookkeeping and taxes, and ......, and ......, and ...... Whenever you see him, you should thank our lucky stars we have such a champion in our local community.

Work is underway to create a studio dedicated to tango in the northeast corner of the building, which will be operated under a separate lease to Boulder Dance by Gustavo Naviera, who specializes in Argentine tango. The building permit has been submitted and preparations are being made for construction.

VAC 2012 Year End Message to Members

Importantly we have recently received a large gift and have increased the VAC ownership share in the Avalon to 14%. This goes a long way towards fulfilling one of our main goals as an organization, which is to fully own and manage the Avalon some time in the foreseeable future.

Towards all of these ends, the VAC board of directors conducted a planning retreat soon after the last annual meeting, at which three new board members were inducted. This led to working clarifying the VAC goals in support of our stated mission. We are making progress on many of those goals, largely by way of action through committees. We have refined several aspects of our by-laws and are working on others. We have clarified several aspects of the partnership agreement with Boulder Dance. We have changed the month of the annual meeting so that it is coherent with the issuance of the fiscal year-end financial statements.

THE FUTURE

In the year ahead, we look forward to completing Sodal Hall, and the excitement and challenges of operating the new hall.

We are currently considering a change of name. The name “Village Arts Coalition” – developed in 1989 at the outset of this organization – has its strengths, but it has also been confusing to many people over the years. We are working to find if there is a more optimal name. Not a simple matter to find the perfect name for all that we do! We welcome your comments and/or suggestions.

As required by our by-laws, we will host our annual meeting on Sunday, April 28, at the Avalon. At this meeting there will be a short business meeting that will include an overview of our operations, followed by election of directors. We are keen to find new board members who can bring leadership and business acumen to our group. Your recommendations are welcome.

We are also eager to find additional people to help us with important tasks such as graphic advertising, outreach to groups, and special projects. We will be soliciting your specific help for the International festival in the near future.

Most importantly, we thank you and every person who has helped sustain what is certainly one of the most vibrant and successful community dance and folk art coalitions in the nation. Thank you and best wishes for a great New Year!

— Larry Utter, President
The Village Arts Coalition
