Vol. 24, No. 5
Sept.-October 2013

The Village Arts Coalition (VAC) wants to keep our members better informed on what is happening in our dance and music world. Our new STOMP! will feature updates on the Avalon and more VAC Board news & messages from our President. We’d like to feature articles from our members and more items of dance interest. We would like you to contribute information, news items and history about your music and dance groups. Tell us about your workshops and special events so we can include those. Groups, please think about articles and photos you would like to feature in future Stomp! issues. Contact stompvac@gmail.com with articles, photos and ideas for issues.

We will continue to list our dance groups but the Dance Calendar will only be published online. It will be easily accessible at: www.villageartscoalition.org.

PLANINA – Songs of Eastern Europe announces our 25th Anniversary Reunion Celebration on Saturday, Oct. 26, at the Avalon Ballroom. We will present a choral concert and Balkan Bash dance party with our guest musician friends and returning alumni, in addition to a light Mediterranean dinner catered by Donald Vukovic, The Baklava Guy.

Planina has come a long way from the tentative little ensemble that performed at the April 1988 Boulder Slavic Festival at the Boulder Elks Club. Some of us had met at a series of house sings and had agreed to work up a few tunes for the Slavic event. After the festival, we just kept rehearsing. Our next performance was at a First of Fall party for the Boulder folk dance community, followed by a big folk music and dance stage show produced by Alex Wilson that November. We were on our way! Soon we were performing for community centers and local festivals under the name Planina Balkan Women’s Choir. “Planina” means “mountain” in the southern Slavic languages.

Many members have come and gone since then; three of the original members remain. Although there have been some (wonderful) exceptions through the years, we are mostly not of Eastern European heritage; we just love the music.

Our skills and collective knowledge base have flourished over the years, as members moved away, sang with other groups and returned, and new singers brought in new music and ideas. Since 1999 the men’s portion of Planina has numbered 1-4 members (we’re currently looking for more guys; contact us if you’re interested!), so we changed our name to “Planina: Songs of Eastern Europe.”

STOMPI is published six times a year by the Village Arts Coalition, a non-profit organization dedicated to the enhancement of the folk arts.
An important part of Planina’s mission is to teach others about the background and cultural contexts of the songs and rituals that we perform. Planina members have taught workshops at the Snow Mountain Ranch YMCA Camp, Metro State College, UCCS Women’s Week, and numerous area elementary schools. Planina has performed often at the annual Boulder International Festival, the Orthodox Food Festival in Denver, Summerfest, and A Taste of Colorado, to name a few. And we’ve done collaborations with area musicians and storyteller Susan Frontczak, and with groups like The Rhythm Method, Cherry Creek Chorale, and Denver Gay Men’s Chorus.

Planina sings in a total of 30 languages and dialects. Members have studied Bulgarian, Croatian, Greek, Russian, and other languages to better understand the meanings of the songs.

Some members attend the annual EEFC Balkan Music & Dance Workshops to work with teachers from the U.S. and Eastern Europe. We occasionally bring in teachers to help us learn distinctive styles from various regions. We’ve taken two group trips to Bulgaria, in 1998 and 2005, to learn songs and study customs with villagers; individual members continue to travel abroad and gather new material.

Group members also study and play instruments, including accordion, balalaika, kankles (Lithuanian zither), recorders, tambura, and various folk drums. And 25 years of careful attention to collecting original and reproduction costume pieces provide another rich thread in our story as well as a colorful display for concert audiences.

Planina would not be where it is today without the enthusiasm, encouragement, and support of its local and regional audiences over the years. We gratefully acknowledge the Village Arts Coalition as part of that support.

And then there’s our own pleasure in what we do. One long-term Planina member writes: “Being a member of this choir gives me a place of true belonging; the love of music, dance, celebration, and friendship is a bond around our hearts, helping us share the joys and sorrows of life across the years.”

As of this writing, 35 former members and instrumentalists are planning to participate in the reunion event on October 26 at the Avalon. Please join us! See Special Events page in this issue for details. We will do our absolute best to stir your soul and move your feet!

Monday Night classes starting Sept. 16th.

Pearl Street Studio [moving soon to the Avalon]. Teaching is from 7-30 - 8:30, followed by open dancing. PERFECT your PIVOT. HONE your HAMBO, SHARPEN your SCHOTTIS !!

Dance series focused on basic Scandi dance skills and accessible, fun dances. Learn the secrets of maintaining your balance while connecting with your partner and turning effortlessly. Scandinavian dance skills transfer to most other couple dance forms, so you will not only be learning new dances, you will be enhancing ones you already know! We begin with Telegangar, a Norwegian walking dance that is reminiscent of country swing in a relaxed tempo, and introduce pivots, one of the basic building blocks of Scandinavian turning dances. In the following weeks we will add schottis, basic Swedish polska, stigvals, hambo and Rørospols. Classes will build on each other, week to week, so it is important to come regularly. Teaching 7:30-8:30, followed by open dancing. Usually live music. No partner necessary. Hard-soled shoes req’d for smooth pivoting. $5.
